THE VIRTUAL INTERVIEW

ANSWER #2

Question: If asked a point blank question such as: Are you creative? Are you analytical? Can you work under pressure? etc. What is the best way to answer?

1. Incorrect: Unsupported answers are often viewed as not credible. Even a closed-ended question normally requires some explanation.
2. This is the best answer. A brief, specific example supports your answer well and says you are confident, well prepared, and genuine.
3. Incorrect: Specific examples offer a much more concise explanation of what you can do. During explanations people tend to ramble and lose the point. You also don't want to give "pat" answers and sound like a professional interviewer.
