2014 NURTURING THE YOUNG CHILD CONFERENCE

EDUC 510: Applications in Early Childhood Education, 28258, $80

There is one graduate credit offered for teachers through attending and participating in the 2014 Nurturing the Young Child Conference. The EDUC 510 course is entitled, “Applications in Early Childhood Education.” Registration for the full weekend and the EDUC 510 course is required prior to the conference. There are no discounts available.

Requirements for earning the graduate credit:

1. Prerequisite: Bachelor’s degree.
2. Register prior to the start of the conference.
3. Attend and participate in the complete conference.
4. Participate in a follow-up session held on December 6, 2014.
   a. Give an oral presentation based on a 12-14 page reflection document written about the implementation of two to four teaching lessons in their classroom that integrate conference materials.
   b. Feedback on the presentation and teaching lessons will be provided by Kari Commerford. Grading will be on the A-F scale.