VI. Action Items

a. Avalanche Awareness

This is an event the rescue team does every year. This event is educational for the community and the students. This is to raise awareness about the dangers of our snow pack. A lot of students come here and they are ignorant to the realities, so it is important to they are educated. This is the key fundraiser of the year for the WSCU mountain rescue team. The fundraiser provides a good amount of funding for the group. This helps us for training, gear, and other operation requirements.

Adam- You came here last year as well, is there any way you could make this sustainable.

Mountain Rescue- We have tried to figure out re-programming and tried to maintain a relationship with planners and donors. We are looking to expand with who we are reaching out to this year. Usually, it is back country skiers. We are trying to get out to more people, so yes we are trying to make it more self-sustained, but the partnership with the program planning class makes it a process.

Fletcher- The date? Nov. 29th. You are getting the pizza from Sodexo? What is your relationship there?

Mountain- I have talked briefly with the chef, and these are the numbers he has given us.

This is just going on previous years.

Fletcher- I was hoping to cut the costs and he said you all could get in there to make your own pizzas, so you could make pizzas for $200. I was hoping you guys could resource there.

Haleigh- How many people usually attend this event?

Mountain- Last years numbers was 200+. Hoping to expand this. This was mostly students. But we would like it to be to more community members and student. This will be our 7th or 8th year to do this.

Danielle- How will you advertise?

Mountain- Facebook event page, newspapers in towns and top of the world, Tabling before event, fliers, radio.

Adam- If you seek a co sponsorship with PC they will print 50 free posters.

Mountain- We are trying to partner with a community group so it can be more consistent. We want stabilized partnerships with members of community.

b. Disaster Relief Bill

WSCU professor and WSCU students want to go to the East Coast to help with Hurricane Sandy. There are 30 interested students, but realistically there will be 15-20 students. This cost will cover rental cars and plane tickets. They have been asking all the departments to help.

Elizabeth- The trip that went to Katrina was hugely impacted the campus.

Trish- what are you doing

Mitchell- Last time we went behind the national guards line to help clean up stuff people couldn't do on their own. There is a thin line for what people can do with their insurance, so we could help clean, build shelters, provide food. Last time we worked with United Way, so we hope to do this again. We already have a spot to provide us with housing, we do not want to take up space in their shelters.

Aurora- New academic provost on campus and her and helman are behind this. This could be good marketing for WSCU with the name change. They were getting national news in Louisiana, so keep this in mind.

Mitchell- When we were in Louisiana people were amazed that we came from Colorado.

Erin- What students will be going on this student?

Mitchell- It is open to any student on campus and I am seeing an outpour of emails for students who want to go. For safety reasons, we want to keep the numbers lower. We want about 10 students per faculty member. This will be done through extended studies.

Sam- Have you sought out students in the area to help utilize housing?

Mitchell- If we fly into D.C. we could stay at my moms house. In New York there is an alum from Western, so she is willing to help house people.

VII. Advisor Report- Gone trick or treating.

VIII. Senator Reports

Amanda- There was another gun person shooting out windows.

Sam D- Adventure Film fest was awesome, we made $845 for mountain sports. 21+ went really well, we made about $300. It all went very smooth. Saturday Play and Destroy. Keep an eye out for another event.

Scott- Trick and Treat night went okay, there were quite a few kids that came. Tomorrow at 7:30, Taylor Auditorium will host a choir concert. Tell people! Jazz and Symphony band played yesterday, we are trying to get the word out about these events. Jason and Jazz trio is next Tuesday in Quiggly Recital hall.

Amy- Women's rugby has first game this weekend at Colorado Mines, we only have 8 girls ☹ Send girls our way!

IX. Committee Reports

Adam- we do have a room reserved for December 14th for the 21+ committee. Keep this date in mind. We are becoming a non profit, so we do not have to follow all the regulations.

Haleigh- We do have butcher paper if anyone needs it. The minutes are up on the website.
